Joy of Giving

As a Homemaker Club, we participate in the Cooperative Extension "Joy of Giving" drive. We will collect gift items for the military serving overseas and the elderly residing in local nursing homes.

For the December meeting, we are asking everyone to bring a Hat, Gloves/mittens or Scarf. Dollar Tree is a great source for these items!

Quilter's Day Out 2024 (QDO)

It's time to begin thinking where you want to serve on this Spring's QDO! Check out our Key Note Speaker: Cheryl Slepoda, www.muppin.com. Committees are forming and your help is needed in the following areas:

Set Up                      Registration

Food                      Vendors

Prizes                      Publicity

Goodie Bags              Quilt Show

Non-profits & service

Last year was amazingly successful and your help will make this year's QDO a terrific event.

Dec 5th Joy of Giving Event:

- Homestead Post Acute Nursing Home
1608 Versailles Rd, Lexington 40504

Gift-wrapping elves are needed at 1:30 p.m. on Dec. 5th at the Homestead Nursing Home. Gift bags are also appreciated. If you are able to wrap, just show up with a smile on your face and willing hands.

Remember your amber medicine bottles! Bring them to the December meeting. They are donated to overseas medical missions.

Blessing or Burden?

Fabric and supply donations in recent months have exploded and our allotted storage space at the extension office is overflowing. While we appreciate everyone thinking of the quilt guild, we need to dial back the donations for a bit. Liz Kingsland and Vicky Coleman have asked that anyone interested in donating to the guild reach out to one of them. They will meet the prospective donor at the extension office to determine if we can accept the donated materials. Remember that the Lex Center for Creative Reuse, 110 Luitgart Court, Lexington, Kentucky 40508, might be a good alternate recipient. Thanks for understanding!

QUILTER'S DAY OUT OPPORTUNITY QUILT

If you took a quilt block to complete for the QDO Opportunity Quilt, please bring it with you to the December meeting. If you are not able to attend, please contact Karen Graham to arrange pick up. Thank you for your contribution!
